The Table Bay

Why Stay Here?

- Set on the historic waterfront, this hotel has been created that is not only a tribute to this world-famous bay, but which also sets its own standards in international service, cuisine and luxury.
- The 5-star Table Bay is magnificent, straddling the antique breakwater with a style that is both innovative and entirely in keeping with its surroundings. It's contemporary architectural treasure, its design and execution are the result of trans-continental co-operation.
- Each room either overlooks the bay to Robben Island Prison, home of South Africa's former President Nelson Mandela for the greatest part of his 27 years of political incarceration, or across the harbour and the city to Table Mountain. The hotel was opened with much fanfare in May 1997 by President Nelson Mandela himself.
- A long driveway sweeps from the main gates to the hotel entrance. At the towering porte cochère, cars are valet parked as guests make their way into the lobby by way of a glass walkway which pierces the stone breakwater wall inaugurated by Queen Victoria's son Prince Alfred in 1869 and is now incorporated in the architectural features of the hotel.
- The Table Bay hotel is a premier conference centre and has a stellar record as an event venue for international and local corporations.
- Voted The Best Address in Cape Town
- Secure & direct access to Cape Town's renowned shopping destination, the Victoria & Alfred Shopping Centre.
- High Tea is served daily in The Lounge against the dramatic backdrop of the harbour, V&A Waterfront and Table Mountain.
- The Atlantic serves The Best Breakfast in the Cape with unrivalled views of the inner harbour and Table Mountain.
- Mineral Water Oxygenator system ensures that the swimming pool water is crystal clear, oxygen rich and of a health mineral content.
- Complimentary Wifi access throughout the hotel.
- A mere 20 minute drive from Cape Town International Airport and shuttle service in a luxury Wifi enabled vehicle.
